

Confined Space Training Course Overview

This course is required by anyone entering a confined space. It deals with the safe entry and egress from a confined space using escape sets and access equipment.

You will be able to:

- Identify different types of confined spaces
- Identify different hazards associated with these spaces
- Identify and use Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- Understand confined space regulations and permits to work tasking
- Use breathing apparatus escape sets and access equipment.